

KBPAC BLUE JEANS DAY

Pick any day(s)
between now and November 30

Jeans Day

Team Spirit Day

You and your bank can participate in this event. It's easy and fun!

- STEP 1. Select one or more days. Some banks promote a single day, multiple days, or a whole month.
- STEP 2. Select a theme. Blue jeans day, flip flop and shorts day, team spirit day. It's entirely up to you.
- STEP 3. Select an amount that is to be contributed by each employee who wishes to participate. We recommend $5 for a single day event. All PAC contributions are voluntary.
- STEP 4. Designate a person to promote this event and sign-up employees in the bank.
- STEP 5. Collect the money from each person participating.
- STEP 6. Get a cashier's check for the total amount collected, made payable to KBPAC and send to the Kentucky Bankers Association along with a list of participating individuals.
- STEP 7. Take lots of pictures and send them to the Kentucky Bankers Association to be printed in the KBA's special PAC newsletter.

Deadline for submission of money is December

Contributions to Kentucky Bankers PAC and Kentucky Bankers Committee for State Government (each referred to as KBPAC in this disclosure) will be used in connection with state and federal elections, respectively. Contributions to KBPAC are voluntary and may not be deducted as charitable contributions. KBPAC may not accept corporate contributions. Contributions will be reported to the Kentucky Registry of Election Finance and the Federal Election Commission, as required. You may decline to contribute without fear of reprisal. You may contribute more or less than the amounts suggested and you will not benefit or be disadvantaged because of the amount contributed or the decision to not participate at all. The information being provided herein with respect to the KBA Political Action Committee is for informational purposes only and is not a solicitation by, or and invitation to contribute funds to, the Political Action Committee. Any contribution received from non-eligible donors will be returned.
